

Ngurra-Jarraddjak Indigenous Graduate Study Options Program 2024

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

*With thanks to the Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung Cultural Heritage Aboriginal Corporation for giving us permission to use the words "Ngurra-Jarraddjak", which means healthy.

Illustration concept by Kat Clarke

Permission to photograph

I, _____

(signature) _____,

hereby provide the faculty of Melbourne, Dentistry and Health Sciences (MDHS) permission to use images and footage of me for promotional and marketing purposes related to the Ngurra-Jarraddjak Indigenous Graduate Study Options Program.

I understand that I may be photographed/filmed and that this may be used by MDHS on their website, and on future promotional material.

Date / / 2024

Ruby Shepherd (She/Her) | Project Coordinator
Indigenous Development | Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences
Level 2, Alan Gilbert Building, 161 Barry Street, Carlton
The University of Melbourne, Victoria 3010 Australia
T: 03 9035 3191
E: ruby.shepherd@unimelb.edu.au